

o Updates

Updates as of 11/18/08

- o FINAL schedules have been uploaded onto the website. Please note that Tuesday's rehearsal has moved up a half an hour.
- o Please note that all costumes have gloves and a combination of scarves, ear muffs and/or turtlenecks. You will be responsible for any warming undergarments and a pair of white sneakers. A sketch of the costumes are on our website.
- o We are getting very excited to meet all of you in person!

Updates as of 11/12/08

- o For further information about the parade, such as: history, fun facts, parade route and more, you can check out the Macy's Parade website:

<http://www.macys.com/campaign/parade/parade.jsp>

Updates as of 11/7/08

- o As a reminder – if you have not yet sent your child's immunization records, please fax them to: (212)575-3125.
- o Check out the link on our homepage for new, fun and exciting things to do while in NYC.

Updates as of 10/30/08

- o All schedules on the website have been replaced with the most current information available. Rehearsal times are still the same but some room assignments have been adjusted.
- o For those of you who plan on attending Broadway shows while in New York – click on the following link for the holiday schedule:

<http://www.playbill.com/celebritybuzz/article/122674.html>

Updates as of 10/24/08

- o If you have not already booked your travel through our travel agent, www.showstopperstravel.com, note that the last day to secure rooms at The Sheraton is October 31st, 2008.

Updates as of 10/10/08

- If you have not decided where you will be watching the parade yet, please consider the Camp Broadway Macy's Parade Breakfast where you can watch your child's performance, live on NBC, on two large screens. If you choose to watch along the parade route you will have the chance to watch the children walk by but you will not be able to see their live performance. Herald Square is reserved for Macy's employees and V.I.P. only. Unfortunately, Camp Broadway has absolutely no privilege in attaining tickets. For more information and to purchase breakfast tickets, visit the link below:
http://www.campbroadway.com/docs/Breakfast_Form_2008.pdf
- For any questions regarding local transportation and directions, please refer to: www.hopstop.com. For all your travel questions and needs, please contact Alan Martin at www.showstopperstravel.com.
- Camp Broadway will provide all participants with two Camp Broadway (one long sleeved and one short sleeved) t-shirts that are to be worn during rehearsals. You must provide long underwear (or any other warming undergarments for the walk in the parade) as well as a pair of white socks and white sneakers (any brand will do). Check out a sketch of the costumes on our website (actual colors will vary slightly).
- If your child's school requires that you provide a letter of excused absence please email your request to:
info@campbroadway.com.
- There is only one authorized photographer allowed in Herald Square the morning of the parade. You can purchase an aerial still shot and/or an aerial taping of the live performance from them directly. The photographer is an NBC vendor and has no affiliation with Camp Broadway, however we will provide you with an order form in your registration packet (should you choose to order at a later date). You can also place your order early by visiting:
<http://www.groupphotos.com/special>

Updates as of 9/26/08

- Registration will be located at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Friday, November 21st, 2008.
18th Floor –Penntop Ballroom
401 7th Avenue @ 33rd Street

- You will have two registration/orientation times to choose from. This is a mandatory orientation.

(Sign In between 4:00 – 5:00PM)

Orientalion from 5:00 – 6:00PM

-OR-

(Sign In between 7:00 – 8:00PM)

Orientalion from 8:00-9:00PM

- Schedules are up on the website. Tuesday's rehearsal is subject to change.