

RADIO CITY'S SOUNDS OF CHRISTMAS FEATURES THE CAMP BROADWAY KIDS ENSEMBLE AT RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL ON SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8 at 7:30 PM

New York, NY — CAMP BROADWAY®, the award-winning New York-based theater arts enrichment company, is proud to feature 50 young singers, ages 12-16, in Radio City's Sounds of Christmas on Saturday, December 8, 2018 at 7:30 PM. The Camp Broadway Kids Ensemble will perform a 5-minute a cappella classic holiday medley during the pre-show of The Radio City Christmas Spectacular on stage at the world-famous Radio City Music Hall in New York City. This performance follows a day-long intensive of vocal rehearsals with Camp Broadway's creative team including Christine Riley (National Tour: Thoroughly Modern Millie) and Kristin Eley (New York Pops Teaching Program).

The iconic Radio City Christmas Spectacular is one of the most beloved annual Christmas shows in New York City incorporating more than 140 performers. The most notable Radio City Christmas Spectacular performers are The Rockettes, the famed precision dance troupe known for their synchronized kicking.

About Camp Broadway

CAMP BROADWAY® LLC was founded in 1996 and is recognized as Broadway's "original" summer camp. The company's mission is to make theatre arts an accessible and relevant way for creative children to build confidence, hone presentation skills, and discover their unique talents at every stage of their lives. Camp Broadway is now a respected industry leader in audience engagement and a trusted source for parents and teachers seeking quality year-round enrichment programs, experiential events and educational workshops. The Camp Broadway Kids are featured frequently in special appearances at Carnegie Hall, Madison Square Garden, the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and other premier entertainment venues. In 2016, Camp Broadway was honored with a Special Drama Desk Award for "introducing young people to the magic of theater and for playing a crucial role in creating tomorrow's audiences for over 20 years."
