Connecting Communities™

July 24, 2020

Dear Camp Broadway Families and Friends,

I am honored to be writing this note about an organization that holds such a special place in my heart.

Many years ago, when Camp Broadway started thinking about taking their incredible program on the road, ASU Gammage jumped at the chance to be the first city to partner with them. Camp Broadway has taken our ASU Gammage mission of Connecting Communities™ and really accomplished it from the ground up by creating opportunities for the stars and patrons of tomorrow. The work they've done over the past two decades has created a whole new generation of Broadway fans, arts advocates and people who understand the power of musical theater.

This year we are faced with challenges like we have never seen before, and Camp Broadway did not shy away from the challenge. Camp Broadway's mission is to make theater arts an accessible and relevant way for creative children to build confidence, hone presentation skills, and discover their unique talents at every stage of their lives. Through their creative and innovative thinking a new virtual camp is allowing campers to continue to experience the thrills and skills of being a Broadway performer in a new digital way.

ASU Gammage is thrilled to be a part of this virtual innovative approach to Camp Broadway. We are proud to be partners with such an amazing organization that does so much for our industry.

I am sending all a virtual hug and applause.

Enjoy this time of learning, fun and an experience you will never forget. And know you have friends here in Tempe, Arizona, rooting and cheering for you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Colleen Jennings-Roggensack". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Colleen" being more prominent.

Colleen Jennings-Roggensack
